

Self-Help Services

<https://www.txcourts.gov/programs-services/self-help/self-represented-litigants/>

Legal Aid Services

<https://www.txcourts.gov/programs-services/legal-aid/>

- Texas Law Help - Information about different areas of the law for people who are handling their own simple civil legal matter. It also has a Chat service that allows the user to chat with someone who can help. <https://texaslawhelp.org/>
- Texas Court Help - Videos and other information in English and Spanish about going through the court system, including information about how to find a lawyer, where to find forms, and how to get ready to go to court. <https://www.texascourthelp.org/>
- Texas State Law Library Consumer & Self-Help Information - The State Law Library web site has Legal Help information, forms, and links. Its Ask a Librarian feature allows users to get legal information from a librarian by email. <https://www.sll.texas.gov/legal-help/>
- Texas Appleseed - Information about debt collection rights in Texas. The website includes forms for responding to a debt collection lawsuit. <http://www.mydebtcollectionrightstexas.org/>
- eFile Texas Self Help - Free website that helps you fill out and then electronically file common forms for court. <https://selfhelp.efiletexas.gov/srl>
- State Bar of Texas Referral Directory - Referral Directory for Low-Income Texans (PDF) https://www.texasbar.com/Content/NavigationMenu/LawyersGivingBack/LegalAccessDivision/Referral_Directory.htm
- Texas Lawyers for Texas Veterans - A State Bar of Texas project helping low-income military veterans with legal issues. https://www.texasbar.com/AM/Template.cfm?Section=Texas_Lawyers_for_Texas_Veterans
- Legal Aid of Northwest Texas - serves the Dallas-Fort Worth area and Northwest Texas. <https://internet.lanwt.org/en-us>