ANDERSON COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE CASE REPORT

Case Number: 22-10776

Officer Writing Report: Hughes, Allen
Agency: Anderson County Sheriff's Office

Case Report Synopsis:

Impounded bull involved in an Auto - Cattle crash subsequently expired from his injuries

Report Details:

On September 18, 2022, during night time hours, ACSO Deputy M. Mitchell was dispatched to SH 287 North in reference to a crash involving a black bull. Upon arrival he located a damaged mini van and an stray black angus bull standing in a ditch just north of the crash location.

After attempts to locate the animal's owner failed, the next Cowboy on rotation was contacted and responded to the scene. The bull, showing signs of possible injury, was taken into the Cowboy's care, custody and control and transported to his facility for holding.

Deputy Mitchell documented the pick-up and impoundment under ACSO case# 22-10776 with the ACSO Estray number of 22-404 subsequently being assigned.

The following morning, 09-18-2022, the bull expired, evidently from injuries sustained in the crash: Photograph of carcass obtained, documented by Cowboy, and uploaded into the I/T image section of this report:
